PRESS RELEASE

Sub: Inauguration of English Communication Skills Training programme – reg.

The Karnataka State Rural Development and Panchayat Raj University (KSRDPRU), Gadag has organized a 10-day Training Programme in English Communication Skills to the Postgraduate students of the University in collaboration with the Regional Institute of English South India (RIESI), Bengaluru. The inauguration of the Training Programme was held on Friday, the 6th October 2017 in the University premises at Gadag. The RIESI has designed the Training Module and six of its faculty are the resource persons for the training programme in two batches. The classes will be held for 10 days continuously from 6th to 15th October 2017 including Saturdays and Sundays. More than 100 students are taking advantage of the programme.

Prof. B. Thimme Gowda, Vice Chancellor, inaugurated the programme and impressed upon the students the imminent need of improving the English language in the present day competitive world to face the global situation and called upon them to utilize the opportunity provided by the University. Prof. Dr. Suresh Nadagoudar, Registrar, welcomed the guests and gave an overview of the training programme organized in the interest of the students of the University. Shri Prashanth. J, Finance Officer, speaking on the occasion stressed the importance of effective communication skills of not only in English, but also in any language including mother tongue to excel in any profession. Dr. C. Ravinarayan, the Course Coordinator, RIESI, has appreciated the efforts of the Vice Chancellor and the Registrar in organizing the Course for the benefit of the University students and expressed confidence that at the end of the training programme, the students would be able to communicate in English more effectively, which is essential to get better opportunities in the present context. The senior officers and other faculty members of the University and RIESI were present at the inaugural function.
